ROWLAND, John T.

B. Greenwich, Connecticut, March 5, 1888
Resident of Newcastle

March 20, 1967

Mr. John T. Rowland
River Road
Newcastle, Maine 04553

Dear Mr. Rowland:

Your WIND AND SALT SPRAY, being a Maine book by a Maine writer, should, we think, be in the Maine Author Collection.

This is a permanent exhibit of Maine books and those written by Maine persons. Most of the volumes are inscribed presentation copies, which, together with the biographical and critical material we gather, makes a valuable and highly interesting collection, of enduring attraction for students and visitors.

We would welcome the opportunity to include a copy of your book, and we hope that you may want to present a copy for this purpose. You have our good wishes for its success, which would seem assured with such an inviting title.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Dear Mrs. Jacob:

I have just got home and found your letter of March 20th. in regard to my book, "Wind and Salt Spray."

I should be most happy to present a copy for inclusion in the Maine Author Collection. The only hitch is that the first edition was a sell-out and the book is at present out of print.

However, I will scout around and see if I can find a copy to send you. Maybe the publishers can help, and I am getting a letter off today.

Thank you very much for the honor of your invitation.

Sincerely yours,

John T. Rowland
